Благовест

A photograph of a stage performance. In the center, a woman in a dark dress and purple shawl sings into a microphone. Behind her, a group of performers in traditional red and white costumes with headscarves are clapping. To the right, a man in a suit and a woman in a blue dress are also clapping. The background features a large red curtain and a sign that reads 'пасхальный Фестиваль Благовест' (Easter Festival of Good News). The sign also depicts a sun, a cross, and three Easter eggs.
